would have scored the runner. Wallace scored the first run in the fourth. He got a clean drive past third. Kirkpatrick advanced him on a neat sacrince. He stole third and scored on O'Nell's fly to Hooker. Shafer then got a double, but Barrett caught him napping off second.

In the ninth it looked as though the gane belonged to the Coits. Reeve hit past Fischman, and went to second on Heffron's sacrifice. Wallace sent a scorcher down the third-base line for three bases. The ball, according to the concensus of opinion in the grandstand, struck foul, but Lally called it fair, and Reeve scored from second. Kirkpatrick found Barrett for a double to the left foul line and Wallace scored, making the score 3 to 3. Nothing but sensational fielding on the part of both teams kept the score down, as both pitchers were hit freely. The Richmond team will leave tonight over the Chesapeake and Ohio for home, after making themselves popular by their demeaner in the city. The score: popular by their demeanor in the city.

GUILFORD DEFEATS

Strong Tarheel Aggregation Loses Brilliant Twelve-Inning Battle.

Inning Battle.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHAPEL HILL, N. C., May 1.—In the last game of the season, Guliford défeated Carolina here to-day, after a twelve-inning contest, by 2 to 1. The game was undoubtedly one of the prettlest exhibitions of clean baseball ever seen on the home diamond. The weather was fine and a large croyd was delighted by the beautiful exhibition of baseball.

The principal features were Thompson's pitching and Story's home-run for Carolina, and the heavy hitting of Price and Hobbs for Guliford, as well as the protty catch of Anderson in right-field. Story in the first inning placed the ball neatly over the fence after two men were down, and this, after two men were down, and this, with the exception of Thompson's hit, was the only one made by, Carolina off Price. The game was merely one between the batterles.

Thompson, of Carolina, put up a fine piece of pitching, striking out eleven men against the eight who went down before Price, Gulfford's crack pitcher. Gulford made a run in the fourth inning, and the score remained a tie until the twelfth, when Price got a long three-bagger and scored on an error.

The score by innings: R. H. E. Carolina ... 10 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 -1 2 1 Gulfford ... 00 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 -2 8 2 Batterles: Carolina—Thompson and Rogers, Gulfford—Price, and Hobbs. Struck out—by Thompson, 11; by Price, 8. Umpire, Stem.

LONDON, May 1.—In the final international amateur court tennis championship games to-day Jay Gould won from Pennell, the champion of 1904, in three straight sets, 6-1, 6-1, 6-1.

The ease with which the American champion beat Pennell was a surprise to the British players, who, antichatan the least a great match, some of them even maintaining that the ex-champion was quite capable of defeating the visitor. Pennell, however was overmatched. He found himself powerless to return the American's rathroad serie. Gould played brilliantly throughout, returning almost every play his opponent made.
Gould and Eustace H, Miles will compete for the championship May 4th.
